

Alone: Britain, Churchill, and Dunkirk: Defeat into Victory

A gripping account of one of the most pivotal moments in British history

In the spring of 1940, Britain stood alone against the might of Nazi Germany. The British Expeditionary Force (BEF) had been trapped in France, and the German army was closing in. With the BEF facing annihilation, Prime Minister Winston Churchill Free Downloaded a daring evacuation. In the face of overwhelming odds, the Royal Navy and Royal Air Force performed a miracle, rescuing over 330,000 British and Allied troops from the beaches of Dunkirk.
