The Tormented Family: Jack, Wendy, and Danny Torrance

At the heart of this haunted haven lies the Torrance family. Jack Torrance, a troubled writer grappling with alcoholism, finds himself drawn to the solitude of the Overlook, accepting the position of winter caretaker. His wife, Wendy, a compassionate and supportive woman, accompanies him, along with their young son, Danny. Unbeknownst to them, Danny possesses a formidable gift—the "shining," an extrasensory ability that allows him to perceive the supernatural forces lurking within the hotel.

The Shadows Awaken: A Descent into Madness and Supernatural Horror

As the snow falls heavily, isolating the Overlook from the outside world, a sinister transformation begins to unfold. The hotel's malevolent spirits, eager to corrupt and destroy, awaken from their slumber. Jack, once a devoted husband and father, falls prey to the hotel's dark influence, his sanity eroding with each passing day. Wendy, oblivious to the growing danger, witnesses her husband's descent into madness, trapped in a nightmarish world where reality and illusion blur.
