Characters

Penny Lee: A shy and introverted college student who is drawn into a whirlwind of mystery and self-discovery when she reconnects with her long-lost best friend.

Sam: An enigmatic and alluring figure who contacts Penny out of the blue, claiming to be her childhood friend. As they reconnect through text messages, Penny's understanding of Sam and herself becomes increasingly complicated.

Plot

Emergency Contact begins with Penny receiving a text message from an unknown number claiming to be Sam, her long-lost childhood best friend. Intrigued and curious, Penny begins texting back, unsure of who is on the other end of the line. As their virtual friendship deepens, Penny becomes increasingly drawn into Sam's world and begins to question her own identity.

The plot thickens when Penny learns that Sam is not who they claim to be. This revelation sends Penny on a journey to uncover the truth behind her new friend's identity and the reasons for their deception. Along the way, she must confront her own beliefs about love, friendship, and the nature of reality.

Why You Should Read Emergency Contact
