Ajak Deng's story is one of resilience, hope, and the power of the human spirit. Born in Sudan, she was forced to flee her home country due to the ongoing civil war. She spent years in refugee camps in Kenya, where she witnessed firsthand the horrors of war and the plight of those who had been displaced.

Despite the hardships she faced, Ajak never gave up hope. She dreamed of a better life for herself and her family, and she was determined to make that dream a reality. In 2001, she was granted asylum in Poland, and she began to rebuild her life.

Ajak's journey to Poland was not easy. She had to learn a new language, adapt to a new culture, and find a way to support herself and her family. But she was determined to succeed, and she eventually found her footing in her new country.

In Poland, Ajak met her husband, Piotr, and together they had two children. She also found a job as a social worker, and she has dedicated her life to helping others who have been displaced by war and persecution.

Ajak's story is an inspiration to us all. It is a reminder that even in the face of adversity, we can overcome our challenges and achieve our dreams. It is a story of hope, resilience, and the power of the human spirit.
