

Globaloonies: The Big Red Button

Imagine if you had the power to control the world. With a push of a button, you could solve any problem, end any war, and make everyone happy. What would you do?

That's the question that faces the Globaloonies, a group of ordinary people who are given the power to control the world. At first, they're excited to use their power for good. They end poverty, cure diseases, and bring about world peace. But they soon learn that power comes with a price.

The Globaloonies are faced with a series of difficult decisions. Should they use their power to stop a terrorist attack, even if it means killing innocent people? Should they intervene in a civil war, even if it means prolonging the conflict? And what happens when they disagree with each other about how to use their power?

Globaloonies: The Big Red Button is a hilarious and thought-provoking novel about the dangers and responsibilities of power. It's a must-read for anyone who's ever wondered what they would do if they had the power to change the world.
