

Simone Biles: A Gymnastics Superstar and Inspiration to Millions

Simone Biles is one of the most decorated gymnasts in history. She has won seven Olympic medals, including four golds, and 25 World Championship medals, including 19 golds. Biles's accomplishments are even more remarkable considering the adversity she has faced in her life.

Biles was born in Columbus, Ohio, in 1997. Her mother was addicted to drugs and alcohol, and Biles and her three siblings were placed in foster care. Biles was adopted by her grandparents, Ron and Nellie Biles, when she was six years old. The Bileses provided a stable and loving home for Simone, and she quickly began to excel in gymnastics.
