Alabama's offense is led by quarterback Bryce Young, who is considered one of the best players in the country. Young is a dynamic playmaker who can beat teams with his arm and his legs. He is surrounded by a talented group of receivers, led by Jameson Williams and John Metchie III.

The Tide's defense is also loaded with talent. Will Anderson Jr. is one of the most dominant pass rushers in the country, and Henry To'oto'o is a tackling machine at linebacker. The secondary is led by safety Jordan Battle, who is one of the best playmakers in the SEC.

Schedule

Alabama has a favorable schedule in 2024. They open the season with a home game against Utah State. They then have a tough road test against Texas A&M. They have a bye week in Week 4, and then they have a home game against Vanderbilt. They then have a tough road test against LSU. They have another bye week in Week 7, and then they have a home game against Mississippi State. They then have a road test against Arkansas. They have a bye week in Week 10, and then they have a home game against Auburn. They then have a road test against Ole Miss. They finish the regular season with a home game against Georgia.
