

The Responsible Company: How Yvon Chouinard Built Patagonia into a Force for Good

Yvon Chouinard is a legendary figure in the outdoor industry. He is the founder of Patagonia, one of the world's most successful and respected outdoor clothing and gear companies. But Chouinard is more than just a businessman. He is also a passionate environmentalist and social activist. He has dedicated his life to creating a company that is not only profitable but also responsible.

In his new book, The Responsible Company, Chouinard shares his insights on how to build a business that is both profitable and sustainable. He argues that businesses have a responsibility to give back to the communities in which they operate and to protect the environment. He also believes that businesses can be a force for good in the world.
