Prepare yourself for an unforgettable journey through one of history's darkest chapters. This Has Happened is a heart-wrenching yet ultimately uplifting memoir that recounts the extraordinary survival story of an Italian family amidst the horrors of Auschwitz.

As the clouds of war gathered over Europe, the Levi family found themselves caught in the crossfire of bigotry and persecution. From their idyllic home in Turin, they were forcibly deported to Auschwitz-Birkenau, a notorious concentration camp where human life was reduced to a mere commodity.

unflinching clarity. Through his vivid prose, we witness the resilience of the human spirit even in the face of overwhelming adversity.

As the family members endure the unspeakable horrors of the camp, they find solace in their unwavering bonds.
