

Wilma Rudolph: Little People, Big Dreams - An Inspiring Story of Courage and Determination

Wilma Rudolph: Little People, Big Dreams

Wilma Rudolph was a remarkable woman who overcame adversity to become an Olympic legend. Born prematurely in 1940, she was diagnosed with polio at the age of four and told she would never walk again. But Wilma refused to give up. With the support of her family and friends, she worked tirelessly to regain her strength. By the age of 16, she was running track and field, and by the age of 19, she had become the first American woman to win three gold medals at a single Olympic Games.
