From the age of 16, Alex's life spiraled into a nightmare of abuse, addiction, and despair. As she struggled to escape her tormentors, she encountered a series of dangerous and life-altering experiences that tested her strength and resolve to the brink.

In this raw and unflinching account, Alex recounts her experiences with brutal honesty and unwavering determination. She paints a vivid picture of the psychological and physical torment she endured, the shattered relationships that left her alone and vulnerable, and the addiction that nearly consumed her.

Through it all, a flicker of hope remained within Alex. With the support of a few extraordinary individuals who believed in her, she fought her way back from the abyss, finding redemption and healing in the most unexpected places.
